St. Joseph organizations, residents show support for cancer awareness

By Jenna Wilson News-Press NOW Oct 11, 2022 Updated Oct 16, 2022

We are proud to announce Dr. Jennifer Jackson, Associate Professor with MWSU and her 11 amazing communication students are working with the Social Welfare Board over the course of two semesters to conduct a market analysis, including rebranding measures. The goals of the campaign: 1. Improve overall brand identity of the SWB through a rebranding campaign; 2. Gain awareness of the SWB's services; 3. Increase the amount of patients who receive care from the clinic.

The Social Welfare Board's Westside Clinic provides early cancer detection screenings Monday– Thursdays. Through the Show Me Healthy Program, we are able to provide eligible women, free breast and cervical cancer screenings. SMHW pays for any treatment needs. Early detection saves lives! Call 816-344-5233.

A heartfelt thank you to ALL who help fulfill the mission of the Social Welfare Board: Staff, Volunteers, Board members, the City and Buchanan County, Donors, Mosaic, Friends of the Free Clinic and our LifeChangers!
